LGBT PRIDE MONTH

JUNE 2014

Human rights are inalienable and belong to every person, no matter who that person is or whom that person loves. Since January 2009, Secretary Clinton has directed the Department to champion a comprehensive human rights agenda — one that includes the protection of the human rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) people. The Department uses its full range of diplomatic and development tools to press for the elimination of violence and discrimination against LGBT people worldwide, particularly those forced to flee their homes or countries.

U.S. GOVERNMENT RESOURCES

LGBT Rights in America Today eJournalUSA, Department of State

June's issue of EJ|USA discusses the state of the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) community and its fight for equal rights.
